Announcement

The research project on the Financial Big Bang in Asia organized by Masayoshi Tsurumi (the former head of ICES) achieved a brilliant success. The project has just published one of the research fruits as follows.

The Financial Big Bang in Asia

—Financial crisis and system reform—

Edited by Masayoshi Tsurumi, Hosei University

Ashgate Publishing Limited, U. K.

2001 March

“Written by renowned specialists in the field, this book offers a comprehensive evaluation of the financial markets, and in particular the banking systems, of the Asia-Pacific economies. The shortcomings in financial governance structures in Asia are examined, together with the best sequencing of financial reforms in developing countries. Analysis of the historical context of the development of the Asian banking systems and stock markets and of the current crisis is employed to evaluate the various options for reform.”
